Female Poker Pro Reveals Trade Secrets

In the 2007 World Series of Poker® Main Event Championship, Donna Blevins, a Citrus County resident, parlayed her $216 investment into a $51,000 win and finished in the top 4 women out of 6,400 players. Donna will share her skills and insights into the game that changed her life in this full-day workshop on Halloween.

This fun and unique, hands-on workshop is for both novice and seasoned players. Donna takes the beginner from awkward to comfortable in six information-packed hours and also includes gems for the seasoned player. Everyone will discover little known trade secrets that professionals seldom share.
